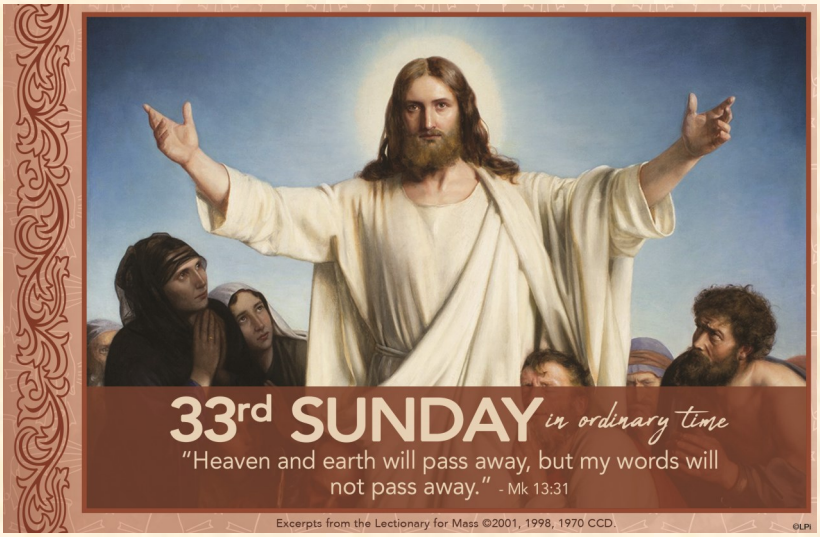
Letter From Our Pastor, Fr. John Paul Lewis



Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

These last two weekends have both been fitting bookends to this National Vocations Awareness Week. Last weekend, we celebrated the ordination of 27 new deacons in the Archdiocese of Oklahoma City, including our very own Deacon Howard Harper. I am grateful to the Lord for the gift of these men, and their willingness to serve the Church as deacons.

Also last Friday and Saturday, I was at Our Lady of Guadalupe Youth Camp for the first Annual Archdiocesan 5th grade Vocations Days. On Friday, we had 125 fifth graders from various Catholic Schools throughout the Archdiocese, and on Saturday, we had 30 other fifth graders who came to learn about the Lord, grow closer to him, and get a sense of the different things the Lord might be calling them to in their life. It was a wonderful time and I sincerely hope that next year, we can take a group from our parish.

This weekend, I will be in Oklahoma City for my sister's wedding. It is such a joy to see my sister answering the Lord's call to marriage with generosity, and to know that the Lord has provided her with a wonderful husband. As a result of this, I am gone, but know that I am praying for you wherever I go.

All in all, this week has been a very important reminder for me of the importance of following the Lord's call for our lives and responding generously to whatever he asks. I pray that all of our parishioners, especially our young people, would be transformed by the Lord, and given hearts of service to give of themselves completely to the Lord.

In Christ,

Fr. John Paul

Sincere thanks to the Knights of Columbus, the Ladies Altar Society, and to the St. Vincent de Paul Society for their willingness to host the receptions for our newly ordained Deacon Harper.

Classes have begun, but there is still time to register and join.

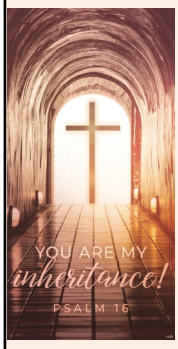
"And then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in the clouds' with great power and glory, and then he will send out the angels and gather his elect from the four winds, from the end of the earth to the end of the sky."
Mark 13: 26-27



The readings today speak of the end of the world and the coming of the kingdom. "Life to come" is in continuity with this present life through the human goods, the worthy human purposes, which people foster now. May our good stewardship help us to be numbered among the chosen on the last day!
